- Peer-to-Peer Leadership Support offers high-level peer-to-peer advice to leaders facing challenges to democratic governance and consolidation in specific countries around the world.

2 SHARED SOCIETIES

Provides leaders with greater understanding of the benefits to advance social inclusion as an essential element in democratic development. Club de Madrid has been promoting shared societies for over 12 years; a society in which all individuals are equally important and equally free to express differences and actively participate, while integrating their voices within the population.

- Implementation of Agenda 2030 fosters the inclusive integration of the Sustainable Development Goals at a national and global level highlighting "leave no one behind" as a priority.
- Inclusive Economies promotes people-centered economic strategies that address employment and sustainable growth for all segments of the population, as well as more inclusive parameters for social protection.
- Inclusive Migration advocates for a migration policy that takes into account the specific vulnerabilities and needs of migrants in global and regional policy responses and processes, elaborating key policy recommendations for their implementation.
- Leadership for Shared Societies seeks to empower emerging leaders –those committed to granting the equal participation of vulnerable communities in decision-making processes– to counter discriminatory rhetoric, given the current climate of political polarization.

- Supporting United Nations and Regional Organizations contributes towards an effective intergovernmental system and a strengthening of these key institutions, enabling them both to play more significant global roles.
- Dialogue between China and the World encourages mutual understanding on critical global issues, particularly those affecting the state of the multilateral system as a contribution to enhanced international cooperation.
